From a Crow fan in Vietnam

10:30 AM Thu 14 August, 2008

Meeting Miss Australia was a fringe benefit for a Crows fan living in Vietnam.

Here is the first of afc.com.au's stories from Crows fans living or travelling overseas...

"I have been meaning to write to the club for some time now so your 'Crows around the world' article (on the website) has given me an excuse to get on with doing it.

I am one of several expat Crow fans living in Vietnam. I have in fact been in SE Asia for the last 17 years and it's been that long since I have seen a live Crows game. The last game I attended was round 17, 1991 on a wet sloppy day at Princess Park where the Crows beat Carlton (I was in Melbourne on a University field
